MYRTLE BEACH
SOUTH CAROLINA

“SHOP TILL YOU DROP” ... INTO YOUR BEACH CHAIR!

Something to please everyone when shopping the strand

Surf, sand, amusement parks and golf aren't the only activities in South Carolina's Myrtle Beach area. The Grand Strand enjoys a sterling reputation as a vibrant shopping destination by the sea, luring everyone from serious shoppers to leisurely strollers wanting to window-browse. The Myrtle Beach area abounds with retail options from boutiques and factory outlets, to mixed-use shopping and entertainment complexes that tempt every imaginable budget, taste and style.

Barefoot Landing

At Barefoot Landing, shopping feels closer to nature. Adjacent to miles of boardwalk overlooking the Intra-coastal Waterway near North Myrtle Beach, the popular complex features more than 100 retail shops and 15 waterside restaurants, which includes the House of Blues restaurant and concert hall. Serious shoppers will find everything from apparel, jewelry and shoes to gifts, toys and specialty foods. Families will delight in Alligator Adventure and the Alabama Theatre. And when it's time for a stroll, the breezy boardwalk awaits. For more information, call (800) 272-2320 or visit www.bflanding.com

Broadway at the Beach

With singing gondoliers in gondolas, themed restaurants like Hard Rock Café, Jimmy Buffet's Margaritaville and Planet Hollywood and more than two dozen new shops, Broadway at the Beach brings the best of shopping and entertainment together on 350 acres in the heart of Myrtle Beach. Surrounding a lovely 23-acre lake, its more than 100 boutiques offer apparel for all, shoes, sporting goods, toys, artwork, jewelry, gifts, housewares, beauty products and one-of-a-kind items. Visitors can choose from 20 restaurants, 10 nightclubs and three on-site hotels. Broadway's fun family attractions include IMAX Discovery Theater, MagiQuest, Ripley's Aquarium, Pavilion Nostalgia Park, WonderWorks and a 16-screen movie theater. For more information, call (800) 386-4662 or visit www.broadwayatthebeach.com.

Coastal Grand Mall

Located near Myrtle Beach International Airport, the area's newest mall is also South Carolina's largest, with more than 100 shops and a 14-screen stadium-seating cinema. Shoppers can find jewelry, books, electronics, clothing, shoes, sporting goods, furniture, beauty products, perfume, candy and gifts. If a day of shopping works up an appetite, there are dozens of eateries for every palate. A few of the emporium's big-name tenants are: Bed, Bath and Beyond; Dick's Sporting Goods; Starbucks; Gap; Victoria's Secret; Sephora; and is anchored by Belk, Dillards, JCPenny and Sears. For more information, call (843) 839-9100 or visit www.coastalgrand.com.

The Market Common

Opened in 2008 and located on the former Myrtle Beach Air Force Base, The Market Common is the Grand Strand's first urban village – a mixed-use residential and retail development that boasts six restaurants and approximately 50 retail stores. Apartments and condos are housed above the retail area in a pedestrian-friendly design. Among the tenants are: P.F. Chang's China Bistro (South Carolina's first); Pottery Barn; Ann Taylor; Orvis; Tommy Bahama; Chico's; Banana Republic; Coldwater Creek; Anthropologie; Copper Penny; Gordon Biersch Brewery; White House/Black Market; a 16-screen movie theater; and an upscale Piggly Wiggly grocery store. Communities of town homes and single-family homes are currently developed near the site of the village. For more information, call (843) 839-3500 or visit www.marketcommonmb.com.

Ron Jon Surf Shops

Surf and beach lovers the world over are no doubt familiar with the name Ron Jon. The surf shop has locations in four states, including two along the Grand Strand. Visitors to Myrtle Beach can find everything they need before hitting the waves at the area locations in Barefoot Landing and Broadway at the Beach. For more information, go to www.ronjonsurfshop.com.

Tanger Outlet Center (North)

Head to U.S. 17 and the Grand Strand's newest outlet plaza for more than 100 brand-name manufacturer and designer outlet stores including: Coach; Fossil; Kenneth Cole; Liz Claiborne; Nine West; Polo; Ralph Lauren; Calvin Klein; Banana Republic; Old Navy; Ann Taylor; Kate Spade; Reebok; Samsonite; and many more. Plus, the center is brimming with tempting restaurants and specialty shops for housewares, perfume, books and gifts. For more information, call (843) 236-5100 or visit www.tangeroutlet.com.

Tanger Outlet Center (West)

This sister shopping haven to Tanger North sits on U.S. 501 in Myrtle Beach and features: J. Crew; Izod, Cole Haan; Rockport; and Revere factory stores, among almost 100 other shops of every nature. The newly expanded center includes numerous dining options such as Outback Steakhouse and Ruby Tuesday. For more information, call (843) 236-5100 or visit www.tangeroutlet.com.
